Newsletter May 2025

President's Message

This is our final newsletter of the year. Looking back, the quilt show was a smashing success and profitable too! But you knew that!

Our next meeting is on May 21, 2025. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. if the person with the key is on time! (that would be me) 7 – 9 PM Walpole K of C Hall.

Our guest speaker is Michelle Banton. Website: www.littlepupdesigns.com
Topic: "If MacGiver was a Quilter".

The guild is gathering info for our next quilt show forming a new committee to scout out possible locations. If you know of a great space or even one with decent lighting and parking please share. Terry Ruta will be emailing all guild members soon. When you get her message reply with your suggestions. (Bonus points if the venue has bathrooms!)

Exciting things are ahead! We'll be voting on our new board at the May 21st meeting. Get ready to welcome Carla Keene as our new president! No pressure Carla. We're only expecting greatness and maybe some snacks. And don't forget the winning ticket for the raffle quilt will also be drawn that night. If you haven't returned your ticket stubs yet, now's your chance!

June 18th Guild Meeting features speakers Diana Annis and Anita Loscalzo. Their topic: "Documenting Your Quilts."

Please participate in the Summer Challenge. We will be making pillow cases for kids. Have a wonderful summer. Here's to creativity, camaraderie, and well-organized chaos in the year ahead! I love you guys!

Comfort Quilts for the Taunton Habitat for Humanity Family

There's a lot going on with comfort quilts! Abby and I will be attending the Habitat for Humanity breakfast this month that recognizes organizations that assist in the new house building/preparation. The house in Taunton will be turned over to the owners on June 16th and some of us will be there to present the family members with quilts.

We donated quilts to the Westwood Pathways Healthcare hospice organization and I received back a lovely thank you note that I'll bring to our meeting. I shared the information in an email to everyone about the isolette quilts and the pillowcases we are adding to our repertoire! I'm excited to start receiving these from you all!

Lastly, we have a new affiliation with an organization in Attleboro called Abundant Hope. It is an organization working with families supporting children under the age of 2 with food, diapers, clothing, etc. I brought a bag of quilts to them yesterday and the director was thrilled. She said they will be very popular in the fall and winter so get busy making crib sized quilts for this great agency. I do have a large roll of 100% cotton batting (required for isolette quilts) so please let me know if you need some. Thank you!!

Raffle Quilt

The winning ticket will be drawn at the end of the May 21 guild meeting. While you don't have to be present to win, you do have to make sure I have your ticket stubs! If they aren't in the pile of stubs, I guarantee you won't win. You can bring your ticket stubs to guild meeting. Alternatively, you can mail them to me ASAP at 42 Springdale Ave, Dover, MA 02030 if you will not be at the guild meeting. We sold lots of tickets over the last year. Be on hand to see if you are the winner of Star Gazer! More info about how much we raised from ticket sales at the June meeting and in the September issue of this newsletter. I can't thank you all enough for a tremendous effort t selling tickets and raising funds for our charity quilts.
Cheers!
